

Alan T. Hall, 43, 8031 Old Richmond Road, died Wednesday. Services 2 p.m. Saturday, Immanuel Baptist Church. Visitation 3-9 p.m. today, W.R. Milward Mortuary — Southland; 1 p.m. Saturday, church. Contributions suggested to Kentuckiana Hemophilia Foundation.

Alan T. Hall, 43, husband of Lisa Ray Hall, 8031 Old Richmond Rd., died Wednesday at Sand Lake Hospital, Orlando, FL. He was the owner of the Alan T. Hall CPA-PSC, born in Corbin, KY, son of Charles E. and Ruth Newby Hall, a member of Immanuel Baptist Church, and supporter of the Lexington Christian Academy. Other survivors include a daughter, Lyn Taylor Hall, Lexington; maternal grandmother, Mrs. Oscar Newby, Lexington; and a brother, William "Chuck" Hall, Lexington. Funeral service 2 p.m. Sat. at Immanuel Baptist Church conducted by Rev. Mike James and Dr. Ted Sisk. Burial in Richmond Cemetery. Friends may call at the W.R. Milward Mortuary-Southland today from 3-9 p.m. and from 1 p.m. Sat. at the church until service time. Memorials to the Kentuckiana Hemophilia Foundation, 982 Eastern Pkwy., Louisville 40217.